International Buyer Delegation Programme is hosting 450 tour operators from 55 countries!

This year, just like every other year, EMITT Tourism Exhibition will host the Foreign Procurement Committees Program. Within the scope of the program which will take place in partnership with TravelShop Turkey, 450 tour operators from 55 countries have applied. These countries include Azerbaijan, Germany, Greece, India, Italy, Jordan, Kuwait, Macedonia, Philippines, Portugal, Russian Federation, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Spain, Thailand and United Arab Emirates.

ITE Turkey Tourism & Travel & Fashion Group Director Hacer Aydın had the following to say: “In addition to being a trading platform which gathers tourism sector professionals, EMITT is also an important address for holiday enthusiasts. EMITT, which is being attended by Japan, Kyrgyzstan, Nepal, Kosovo and Mauritius for the first time, is an effective platform with its exhibitors, visitors and the trading volume it creates for the tourism sector. Within the scope of the International Buyers Delegation Program, which supports tourism sector every year, we are hosting more than 450 hosted buyers. The interviews made within the scope of this program will plan tourism sector's route in 2017. At the panels, which we will be organizing within the scope of the exhibition, we will gather the leading names of tourism sector with tourism sector representatives of our country and provide information flow to the sector. With the Special Winter Tourism Section, Special Outdoor Tourism Section and Special Hotel Support Equipment Section, which we are organizing this year in parallel with the sector's development, we will present different options for our exhibitors and visitors. Our visitors will be able to arrange their vacations at convenient prices with early reservation and exhibition-exclusive offers.”
