

Novi Sad

WITH A VISIT TO KRUSEDOL MANASTIR AND SREMSKI KARLOVCI

The trip to Sremski Karlovci and Novi Sad is a one day excursion and an opportunity to see something else besides charming Belgrade. During the trip, you will find out more details about Serbian history, while driving through the endless fields of Vojvodina plain and listening to Balasevic, one of Serbian most famous singers and song writers, who sings about typical Vojvodina lifestyle. We will tell you all about Lala and Sosa, two traditional Vojvodina characters, why people walk and talk more slowly in Novi Sad and help you get to know the people. You will learn about Neoplanta's jealousy, well-known Serbian hospitality and more about everyday life of different nationalities living in this area. You will find out how long and why people here grow vines and how come Bermet wine was on Titanik's wine list; why Maria Theresa loved this protected liquor and why it is considered to be "the best friend of real gentlemen".

Krušedol Monastery - one of the most important monasteries of Fruška Gora, situated in the Fruška Gora, surrounded by the monastery quarters - was founded by despot Djordje Branković. The significance of Krušedol is great, as evidenced by the size of the person buried there - the whole family of despot Brankovic, King Milan Obrenovic, Princess Ljubica, the patriarch of Arsenija III. In the church of monastery are the most interesting frescoes from the 16th century, and together they are the most important example of Baroque painting in Serbia.

A small place nowadays, Sremski Karlovci is a town of significant importance for both Serbian history and the history of other countries. It has therefore a status of a unique Serbian municipality. This is the place where the Treaty of Karlowitz was signed, conveniently located not far from Brankovo Strazilovo and numerous family wineries where you can taste some of the best wines from Fruška gora. Afterwards, a lunch and tasting of local fish on the Danube river banks, under Petrovaradin fortress, built in fear of Ottoman dynasty, is an experience satisfying all the senses and creating unforgettable memories.

Lepenski Vir

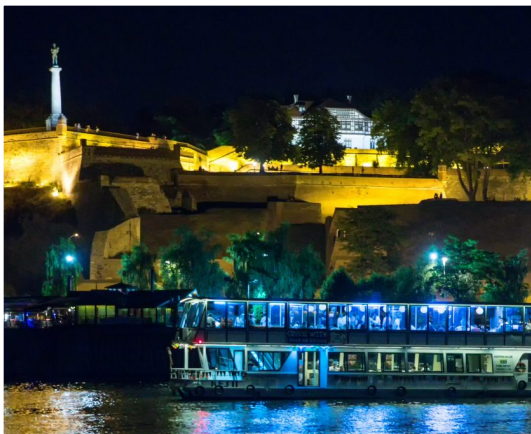

WITH A VISIT TO ROMAN CITY OF VIMINACIUM AND GOLUBAC FORTRESS

Don't leave Serbia without spending a full day on this excursion!

We'll head towards the South and East. Our first stop will be the archaeological site from the Roman period - Viminacium. Once an important Roman town from the 1st century AD, the capital of the province of Upper Moesia. Apart from the ruins and ancient tombs we will also see the skeleton of one female mammoth that was found during the excavations.

Afterwards, we continue towards the medieval fortress of Golubac that was newly reconstructed - a beautiful combination of stunning views and history!

Later on we'll make a break for lunch with a view towards the Danube river and Djerdap Gorge. The best is for the end: incredible Lepenski Vir – an archeological site where you will have a chance to meet a culture more than 9.000 years old.
